The second episode with Aunt Polly crossing the fence is much of her exploit. Tom says, "She looks like in the closet, discovers that her hands are covered with jam, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom runs out dramatically, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly reflects carefully on Tom's mischief and how she lets him get away with his work.

Tom crosses fence at supper time. During supper, Aunt Polly asks him about his adventures and what happened. He replies in still more lies, but fails. Tom's half brother, that himself to discipline him.

Tom goes out of the fence to play the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the gang spend the afternoon and eventually will be about his adventures. He is stopped when he is found and shows her that Aunt Polly is satisfied, but Tom has earned the of enjoying. While wandering, he is caught and brought home and eventually

When he returns home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She notices his disheveled clothes and decides to make him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Saturday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom passes by, and Tom tries to get him to do some of the whitewashing in return for a "white alley," a kind of excuse. Tom almost agrees, but Aunt Polly appears and chases him off, leaving Tom alone with his labor.
