The next day, with Aunt Polly watching the house as a work of her nephew, Tom Sawyer. She finds him in the closet, discovers that his hands are covered with jinx, and prepares to give him a whipping. Tom calls out fearlessly, "Look behind you!" and when Aunt Polly turns, Tom escapes over the fence. After Tom is gone, Aunt Polly walks outside on Tom's shoulder and tells the little boys get away with her work.

Tom goes out of the house on Saturday morning, walking the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the men around him are dressed in their best clothes, and eventually, they all leave the town center to go to the river.

When he arrives home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She scolds him for getting drunk and refuses to let him work the next day, a Saturday, as punishment.

On Sunday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom pretends to paint the fence, but instead, he uses a brush to paint Tom's face white. Tom continues painting, but Aunt Polly appears and drives him off, leaving Tom alone with his paint.

Tom goes out of the house on Saturday morning, walking the streets of St. Petersburg. Tom and the men around him are dressed in their best clothes, including a white shirt and a bowler hat. They are walking towards the river, where they will be crossing it by boat. Tom is carrying a bag with him, which contains some food and drink. He is looking forward to his day's work as a pilot.

When he arrives home in the evening, Tom finds Aunt Polly waiting for him. She asks him if he has cleaned up and if he has any plans for the weekend. Tom replies that he has no plans, but he would like to go for a walk with his friends.

On Sunday morning, Aunt Polly sends Tom out to whitewash the fence. Tom pretends to be too tired, but Tom knows he can't get away from his chores. Tom decides to whitewash the fence, but he does not want to do it. Instead, he pretends to be a "white collar," a kind of master. Tom doesn't care, but Aunt Polly ignores him and leaves him off, leaving Tom alone with his chores.
